IC AWAKES

The Hilltop Campus welcomed students back on Sunday, Aug. 25. As usual, Pres. and Mrs. Mundinger held an Open House for all new incoming freshmen, transfer students, and parents. The first two days were filled with meetings upon meetings. Boy was it tough trying to find the right meeting. Registration was next. If you didn't know which line to get into you could get lost and end up not being registered. To welcome all students back the annual Laker was held at IC Point. A good time was definitely had by all. Some don't even 1 remember having a good time. Opening Convo was very impressive for those who were new to the Hilltop Campus. Thanks to SAB we all enjoyed a movie, Tootsie, before the struggle of classes began. To end the week of hectic events and homesickness, SAB again provided us with entertainment. This time we were treated to a dance held at the American Legion Hall. We danced until dawn and then hit Hardees to renew old friendships with the midnight crew.

1. Sophomore Shaun Graves faces the clutter of a room with his trusty blanket.

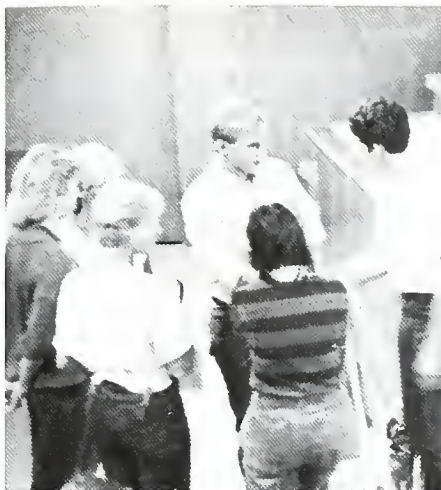

2. Juniors Suzanne and Michelle show dad how it's done.

3. Again those junior women show the freshmen how it's done, moving in that is.

4. Jacinda brought her own eggs from home and she hasn't even seen Baxter's eggs yet.

IC enrolled 286 new students, the second highest number since 1970. Of that number, 225 were first-time freshmen and 61 were transfer students.

Total enrollment for the fall term was expected to fall between 750 and 770.

5

1. Mary and Mark greet the group of freshmen and transfer students.

2. Mark says hello to one of his orientation people.

3. Orientation leaders and new students participate in the games.

4. Returning students do what ever possible to keep them occupied while waiting in line. What's that face Shaun.

5. SAB members Sherri Baker and Gina Gillmore inform students about SAB.

6. Kari and Scott prepare their people for the long tour of the Hilltop Campus.

7. And don't you feel stupid.

Fayerweather

Fayerweather is a house for 18 girls on the Hilltop Campus. The privilege of living in the house goes to the Junior and Seniors who apply and have the most hours. The house sets its own rules and is governed by a student resident assistant. Each year something new comes to Fayerweather. This year the house was able to buy a microwave, great for popcorn and left-over pizza. The resident assistant for the year was Monica Pitman.

1. Our resident gardner, Jennifer.
2. Watch out Rhoers, Fayerweather ladies are on the loose.

3. It was how long, Amy????
4. Better luck next year, Mel!!
5. Hey Sexy lady.
6. Don't take my picture.
7. That's not your room Terri.
8. Before our first and last Fayerweather party.

7

Crampton

2

Crampton is a men's honor dorm. Unlike Fayerweather, Crampton houses all men freshmen to seniors. Crampton is known for their punch parties, buffs, and North/South contests. Each year at their annual barbeque North takes on South in softball. During IM season Crampton has dominated many championships. Crampton was governed by student resident assistants. Head counselor was Tom Chesser, with other counselors, Bill McCormick, Bruce Pahde, Dirk Florence, and Elliott Challandes.

1. Men are always setting on the steps.
2. A Freshmen resident takes advantage of the lounge.
3. And what have you two been up to!!!
4. Smile Tommy.
5. Relax Rob it's only a camera.
6. Looking for some babes.
7. "Loving" roommates!!!

1. Jody Dalton looks intense as she punches holes in the script for the next show.

2. Hey Byron they finally got a picture of you. Must be Karen's class you're actually smiling.

3. Earl where's the model for Drawing I.

4. Prof. Royce Jones discusses world events after class as students walk away.

5. Jill Logan listens as she is instructed on how to use the camera.

6. Kirk looks like he's ready to bolt from class, was it that bad???

As our days on the Hilltop Campus were filled with classes, we all will remember something from a class that made it special. Whether it was Karen and her spray gun, Dr. Robinson and her discipline problems, or those foolish freshmen some how in a 300 level history course. Yes, every class left a distinct mark on us and I'm sure there will be more.

Baxter Dining Hall is responsible for the majority of the student workers. Students gain experience working with others, working under a boss, dishroom, serving, cleaning, plus many more jobs. Schewe Library is another source of employment. Students work under the supervision of Mr. Merchant. They gain experience working with others. Another important job is working with Alice Chipman in the bookstore. As a former student employee, I'd like to say thank you to the supervisors and fellow workers.

Students hurry to Class.

People sit and talk,
or stand and talk.

What's that yonder over there???

1. Father and son visit during a long day.
2. A quiet Dr. Garrett!!!
3. We got you again Karen.
4. There's nothing in your hand Shaun.
5. Smile Rena.

HOME COMING

Lumbering haunches, pussyfoot tread, a pride of Lions under the arcs
Walk in, leap up, sit pedestalled there and glum
As a row of Dickensian clerks.

Their eyes are slag. Only a muscle flickering,
A bored, theatrical roar
Witness now to the furnaces that drove them
Exultant along the spoor.

In preyward, elastic leap they are sent through paper
Hoops at another's will
And a whip's "crack" afterwards, in their cages,
They tear the provided kill.

Caught young, can this public animal ever dream of Stars, distances and thunders?
Does he twitch in sleep for ticks, dried water-holes,
Rogue elephants, or hunters?

Sawdust, not burning desert, is the ground
Of his to-fro, to-fro pacing,
Barred with the zebra shadows that imply
Sun's free wheel, man's coercing.

See this abdicated beast, once king
Of them all, nibble his claws:
Not anger enough left-no, not despair - - -
To break his teeth on the bars.

CIRCUS DAYS in '85

The Stars of Our Show

Ladies and Gentlemen, Children of all ages, it's show time. And starting in our Center Ring are the prettiest stars of our show. Thanks to our Ringmasters Marcia Short and Joe Salerno it's time to find out who's the biggest star. Our top star is Ms. Kari Calbreath. Kari was chosen from a cast of twelve outstanding stars by the fans of the Hilltop Campus. Kari is a big fan of the circus, she designed the Circus Days button. First Runner-Up was Ms. Lori Schisler. Lori, too, is a fan of the Circus. She helped cheer on the Circus' own, Blue-boys. Second Runner-Up was Ms. Julie Wainman. Like all our stars, Julie is a fan of the circus. She helped make it a special event by serving on the Circus Days Homecoming Committee.

1 1st runner-up, Lori; Queen Kari; 2nd. runner-up, Julie.

2. I can't do a thing with my hair.

3. Circus fans, give our stars a hand.

The center stage was Barnes House, thanks to President and Mrs. Mundinger. Our stars for the show were shining their brightest. With the greatest of ease and the grace of a trapeze artist, the stars waited to be photographed and interviewed.

Row 1: Elizabeth George, Chicago; Sherri Baker, Springfield; Lori Schisler, Astoria; Mary Imig, LeRoy; Julie Wainman, Springfield; Lisa Fitzgerald, Marshfield, Mass.; Row 2: Jennifer Legate, Grafton; Kari Calbreath, LeRoy; Chrissy Rhodes, Naperville; Lisa Test, Jerseyville; Lisa Rich, Palmyra; Devi McCurley, Jacksonville.

1. As the girls stood nervously Chrissy was all smiles preparing for the camera.
2. Hey Jen, they're getting your backside.
3. Just relax. It will be over soon.
4. Earth to Julie, come in Julie.

The Main Ring

The Main Ring is proud to present our Ringmasters Marcia Short and Joe Salerno. They have done a wonderful job, along with their many circus hands to bring together acts from all over the Hilltop Campus.

We began the show by introducing our circus hands, members of the Homecoming Committee. Next came the Queen of the Sophomores, Kim Heisler, who seemed to think that the Sophomore men and women could tame the tigers of the Freshmen class. Well the Tigrress, Chris Hall, of the Freshmen Clan, was not about to let the Queen and her followers tame the tigers.

Next came the ferocious roar of our co-captains of the Blueboys, Mark Siever and Randy Mitchell. Both suggested we attend the meeting of the Blueboys and the Monmouth Scots, in the Center Ring of England Field. They agreed it was going to be a feat never before seen.

Last but definitely not least, came the introduction of our Grand Marshals for Circus Days, Dean Wallace Jamison and his wife Ruth. Both brought an honor to the Main Ring.

The moment you've all been waiting for, Queen of the Circus Days, Ms. Kari Calbreath.

1

1. The Honorable Parade Marshals Dean Jamison and wife Ruth.

2. The Queen of the Sophs, Kim, gives the Freshmen a thing or two to think about.

3. A ferocious co-capt. Mark, roars for the fans off and on the field. Go get 'um Mark.

4. Chris tells the Sophs to watch out for the Tigers.

Sophs Prevail

The ring turned into a muddy practice field. The Sisters of Doom, led by Queen Kim, were prepared to take the B.A.B.'s of the Freshmen Class. The only phrase remembered from this event was, "Geeze, Marcia its only a game." But to Marcia and Stephanie it wasn't only a game but a battle for the Hilltop Campus Circus. Was tradition to be broken and have the Freshmen 'girls' beat the sophomore women? Of course not, leave it to our fearless animal tamers, the refs, it was going to be unbelievable. Finally after a magic show of tricks and impossible feats, the Sophomore women prevailed. Next came the Sophomore Men, would they pull a rabbit out of the hat. No, they pulled a truck up to the pit. After seconds both teams stopped pulling and the Sophomore men jumped into a pickup and made a quick get away.

But wait more amazing tricks to come after the shortest tug-of-war in IC history.

1. The Sisters of Doom, with coaches Barry Macias, Chris Skinner, Jim May, Dave Pierson, and Scott Wolters

2. The B.A.B.'s, whatever that is, with remarkable coaches, Steve Reed, Dave Jacobs, and Brad Biddle.

3. Run, Susan, she'll never catch you.

The men behind the scenes, decide to show their faces, Dave Guthrie, Brad Biddle, Matt Long, Dean Eldred, and Steve Beno.

Don't laugh, it could be worse, you could be taking a final.

1. Just a few more feet, puff puff, almost there, - won't I ever make it.

2. It's the quarterback take out, not the sneak

3. The sophs get ready to pull look at that Nuer and Rhoer power

4. The Freshmen have learned early, gang up on them and they'll never know what hit them.

Oh, you guys!!!

CIRCUS DAYS in '85

The Pit

As always the "Pit" takes many people as its victims. This year was no different. Team members seemed to be the most often dunked. But one of the sacrifices was Chris Hall, the President of the Freshman class. You can't say she didn't give her all for her class.

No one within a few feet distance were spared. Even a couple of the organizers were dunked, Brad Biddle and Dave Guthrie. Dave was overheard saying, "It was nice to be dry." Then he was had, nice try maybe next year Dave.

1. Is it Superman? No, its J. R.
2. Oh, #$$%, don't say it Kelly.
3. Hey, wait, I'm a Senior.
4. Hey guys, couldn't we have picked someone else.

CIRCUS DAYS in '85

Circus Follies

Johna shows off her talent.

The highlight of Friday's events were the annual Follies held in Rammelkamp Chapel. Thanks to Julie Wainman and Scott Belobrajdic the acts went on with the greatest of ease. Besides our acts to be judged we were also "entertained" by two clowns alias, Jill Logan and Devi McCurley. The talents of the Hilltop Campus were widely displayed from soloist to dancers to a band. And in the skit category we were given previews of our favorite "soaps" and a future "Biff Letterman" Show. The voting was tough this year. With so much talent, the band consisting of Steve Beno, J. B. Marsh, Jim Trimmingham, and Bryan Wright were crowned winners. And the ladies of Sigma Phi Epsilon, with "Soaps", won out over their brothers of Sigma Pi, with a very unusual show.

And the show comes to an end. But wait there's more to come.

1. What Rhoer talent.
2. Look at that concentration.
3. Keep smiling Marcia, it's almost over.
4. Brenda gives it her all.

1. Smile, Marcia, you're on candid camera.
2. Jill, I don't believe you did that.
3. Look at that form.
4. Is this Pee Wee or Scott?
5. Hey, Sharma, how come you've got gray hair already?

1

Oh, me, my panti hose are too tight.

Parade of Stars

The Parade of Stars began under the direction of Monica Pittman and Todd Smith. All who witnessed this event will agree that it was one of the best. Clowns, bands, and floats were the highlights. Area high school bands performed as did our own IC Circus Band, who sounded better than ever. Many local dignitaries provided floats. What would a parade be without clowns and their car. Gardner Hall, who won the dorm decorations, provided a clown with balloons, a gorilla, plus a ringmaster. The Sig Phips and Sigs sent a Carousel. And the Delts provided a warning to the Scots that they would be cannonballed. The Rhoers also had a nice float but due to faulty materials were unable to keep it afloat.

Winners of this years' float awards went to Gamma Delta for the women's society and to Pi Pi Rho for the men's society.

And the main event was only minutes away.

1. The Delts winning float.
2. Gardner men clown it up.
3. The IC Circus Band.

1. How'd you learn the Princess Di wave?
2. Take a Ride, designed by Sig Phips and the Sigs.

The End

"Ladies and Gentlemen . . . Welcome to 'I.C. Circus Days in '85'!"

This was the theme for Homecoming '85. Homecoming is a time of excitement and involvement on the hill-top campus. There are many activities for everyone to be apart of. There is the convocation-pep rally to start the weekend right, then the Rally dance, and to go along with our theme, we had Lester the Clown, a mime, before the dance. Peanuts and popcorn were served. Friday is a big day for the Freshmen and Sophomores. The girls of each class compete in a powder puff football game, and the boys have a tug-of-war contest immediately following. That night there are Follies in Rammelkamp Chapel. This gives us a chance to see some of the talented people here at I.C. Saturday is the parade and the football game. At halftime we introduced the queen and her court and the honorary parade marshals. That evening is the formal dance.

The success of this years homecoming was the result of a lot of hard work and dedication. I would like to thank everyone who helped and served on committees. Plus a very special thanks to Joe Salerno, my co-chairperson, and also to Dean Eldred our faculty advisor.

Recap of Homecoming

FRIENDS

Without friends no one would choose to live, even if he had all other goods.

Life without a friend, is death without a witness.

George Herbert

Friends are like fiddle-strings, they must not be screwed too tight.

H. G. Bohn

We never know the true value of friends. While they live we are too sensitive of their faults; when we have lost them we only see their virtues.

J.C. and A.W. Hare

Varied indeed are the uses of friends, but the help that is given in time of need stands highest.

Forsake not an old friend; for the new is not comparable to him: a new friend is as new wine; when it is old, thou shalt drink it with pleasure.

The friendships of the world are oft Confederacies in vice, or leagues of pleasure.

Friendship is a creature that seeks a companion.

ACTIVITIES

I really think we should kill the old man and then we could run off with the money.

The two love birds really should kiss and make-up.

1. And the seduction begins.
2. The Queen of the family lets them know of her disapproval of Tartuffe.

Caught In The Act

Under the clever direction of Dr. Kurt Garrett, "Tartuffe" is the story of a family that tries to free itself from the control of a devious man who has bewitched the household's patriarch. The young daughter tries to convince her father that she should be allowed to marry the boy next door. The son argues that he should not be disinherited with the invader Tartuffe put in his place. The wife tries to reject the advances of Tartuffe and to convince her husband that his favorite is not what he appears to be. All the time, the father refuses to believe that Tartuffe is nothing but a great man.

1. As the family looks on Valere, David Chapa, returns the money to Orgon, Jerry Coots.
2. Hey Jerry, hope your face doesn't freeze that way!
3. Oh please Dorine, can't you help me????

Mastermind behind the set construction.

The cast from 'The Butler Did It', Amy, Doug, Shaun, Greg, and Brad. A family portrait.

Now son, I really don't think you should be carrying on like this!

Caught In

The Act

The Hilltopper Players presented the comedy "The Butler Did It" in the Sibert Theatre.

The play mingles laughter and chills as it skillfully unwinds a tale of murder and mayhem in the glittering world of the theatre. The production pokes fun at Agatha Christie style murder mysteries and also has a touch of burlesque taken from classic 1930 murder mysteries.

The production is directed by IC theatre professor Dr. Kurt Garrett.

The cast included: Doug Shelton, Amy Browning, Shawn Schofield, Greg Floyd, Donna Phillips, and Brad Biddle. Linda Berline was stage manager and Shaun Graves was scene designer.

1. Doug didn't you use your deodorant this morning.

2. Ding Dong the witch is dead. The wicked witch is dead.

- 1 1. What a good dog you are Snoopy!
 2. Pitch the ball to me, but please not too hard.
 3. You know I really would like to go sit by the little red-headed girl but I don't think she knows who I am.

4. Dear Mother I'll try to be better, oh, I'd rather die.
 5. I hate cats, but I'm afraid of them.
 6. The tree grows up and has all its leaves.
 7. This little Sig lost his blanket.

7

Caught In The Act

The stage was set, the instruments were tuned and the actors were enthusiastic for the opening night of "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown".

The play first opened in New York in 1967, and has since provided live musical entertainment in the delightful Schulz manner. In fact, the continuing success of this play is attributed to Charles Schulz's ability to view the world in a very human way, one that each of us can associate with.

1. Schroeder do you think we'll ever get married???
2. It's so wonderful to be me!!
3. I'll have my own Queendom! Oh, good grief Lucy!
4. Good pitch Charlie Brown.
5. Rabbit hunting!! I don't even know what a rabbit smells like.

row 1: Bill McCormick, Bruce Reid, Karen Pahde, Laura Phelps, Teresa Wallbaum, Larry Sitler, Tim Donaho, Jon Swanson, Tom Veith.
row 2: Bruce Koehler, Kirk Caponi, Rod Irving, Byron Sims, Mike Bauersachs, Dr. Fry.

The College Midwest Model United Nations delegation garnered three distinguished achievement awards at the 26th Midwest Model United Nations simulation in St. Louis.

The 14-student IC delegation which represented India in this year's competition, was cited as having the best delegation in the General Assembly and best delegation in the Economic and Social Council.

Sophomore Teresa Wallbaum won the award for the best delegate in a workshop drafting a model convention against international torture.

This is the 21st year IC has participated in the simulation.

Senior Bruce Koehler and Bill McCormick shared the leadership of IC delegates.

Dr. Richard T. Fry, chairman of the international studies department, is faculty sponsor for the delegation.

Model Illinois Government

Bill McCormick, Bruce Koehler, Terri Thien, Julie Thompson.

An 11-member delegation from IC participated in the 10th Annual Model Illinois Government competition at the Illinois State Capitol Building in Springfield.

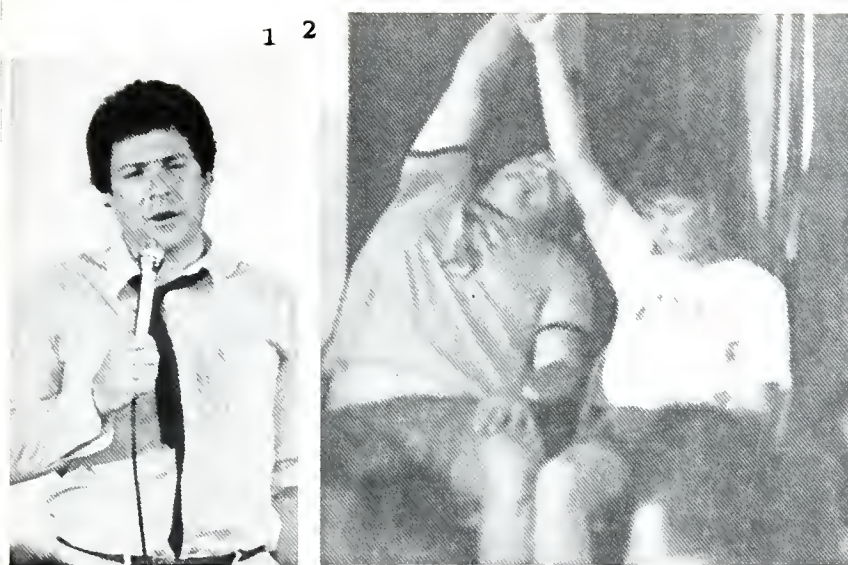

More than 20 schools from around the state participated. IC sends a delegation every year. Members of each institution's delegation plays the role of a state legislator now in office in either the Senate or House of Representatives and go through a mock legislative process for four days.

Koehler and McCormick played the roles of lobbyists. It was the first time that two students have filled those roles since the simulation began.

This year the group was successful getting the Comoda Dragon passed at the state symbol. Robb Karr is to be commended for his patriotic speech.

IC students participating: Byron Sims, John Schillerstrom, Kirk Caponi, Russell Miers, Ed Tubbs, Joan Barnes, and Robb Karr.

1 2

Hypnotist Tom DeLuca

SAB for another year brought the amazing showmanship of Tom DeLuca, hypnotist, to the IC campus. As always the show was an added treat because of audience participation.

1. Tom DeLuca

2. Chris and Kari in a hypnotic state.

8. Diane thinks he's funny.
9. Beth doesn't trust the guys behind her.
10. Bang, Bang.

APO Volleyball

This year instead of a Dance-a-thon for Muscular Dystrophy, APO held a Volleyball-a-thon for MD.

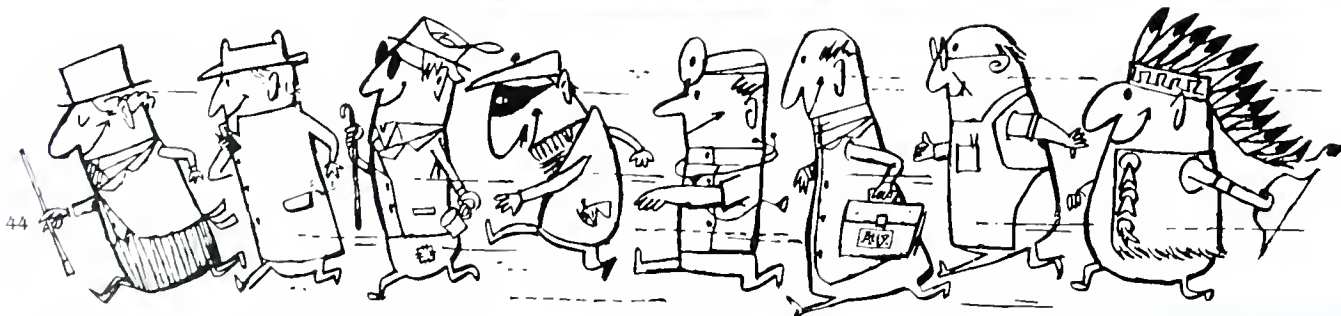

Although not as big as they had wanted, they were fortunate to have 4 teams participate. After three hours of playing volleyball the team of Sigs and Sig Phips had prevailed.

1. AKΦ helped out their brothers and sisters of APO by providing a team to play in the volleyball-a-thon.

2. Jim May and Kari Calbreath were two of the members from the winning team. Keep an eye on the ball Jim.

3. APO provided a team with help from an AKΦ sister. They were favored to win but didn't outlast the Sigs and Sig Phips.

1. Doug you're playing the wrong way. You should be facing the net.
2. Dave Pierson from the Sigs and Sig Phips team stand in the far corner of the court. Are they trying to tell you something Dave???

3. Denise Murphy digs a ball out before it hits the floor.
4. Again Denise to the rescue. Is it a bump for the front row????

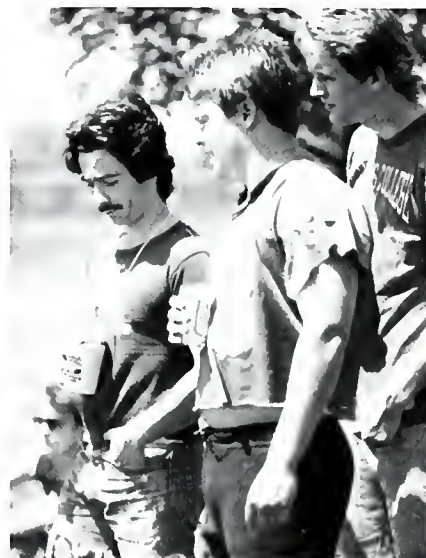

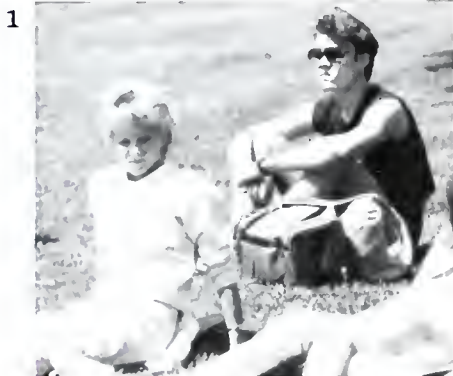

Sig Phips Host

MUD VOLLEYBALL

Spring '86 brought the third year 2 for the Sig Phips' mud volleyball tournament.

If students weren't participating, they were setting on the side catching some rays.

1. Greg sets back and 6 lets everyone else get dirty. Chicken.

2. Mud volleyball fans set back and catch some rays.

3. Rhoers are we.

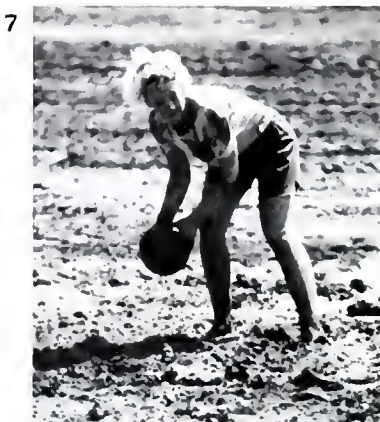

4. Hey Barry did you lose your shirt.

5. Smile Wendy you're on candid camera.

6. Brian tips toe through the mud.

7. My gosh her hair's all muddy.

8. Go getum Denis.

FRIENDS

I fear it's wrong of me
And yet I must admit,
When someone offers friendship
I want the whole of it.
I don't want everybody else
To share my friends with me.
At least, I want one special one,
Who, indisputably.

Likes me much more than all the rest,
Who's always on my side,
Who never cares what others say,
Who lets me come and hide
Within his shadow, in his house —

It doesn't matter where —
Who lets me simply be myself,
Who's always, always there.

RIG VEDA

The Rig Veda Staff would like to "thank" everyone for all their help this year. No matter how I asked or begged no one seemed to care that we might not have a yearbook. Students were asked through the dorms, literary societies, the Rambler, and posters to contribute pictures and information concerning their organization. If it hadn't been for Julie Thompson, Terri Thien, Shaun Graves, Roger Davis, & Mark Allen, the darkroom staff would never have gotten all the pictures. The above five people did a years work in about three weeks time.

I would like to thank them for their help. Also thanks to those who did remember to send in any information and pictures, Marcette Meeks, Jennifer Sundberg, Beth Carlson, and Kevin Fitzpatrick.

To the people who are not pictured, it's no ones fault but your own. I had hoped to have every page filled completely with pictures but when pictures aren't taken I can't.

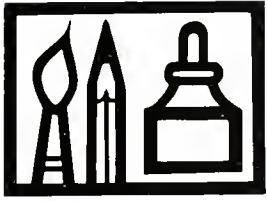

I hope everyone enjoys the 1985-86 Rig Veda. Long nights and two weeks after graduation, the book was completed.

Good luck to the '86 Seniors, Juniors you have a tough act to follow.

Darkroom

Julie Thompson

This year we again tried for a darkroom staff. But with only two photographers at the beginning of the year it was hard. Darkroom managers were Cathy Underwood and Elliott Challandes. They were unable to attend to all of the events to get pictures so they fall back to friends. Helping out during the year were Lisa Summey and Tom Veith. And still not everything was shot. We had to make up for a year's time within three weeks. If it hadn't been for Julie Thompson, Terri Thien, and Mark Allen we would not have the pictures that we have now. We still did not get all the pictures that the yearbook needed. For that the darkroom staff apologizes to the Hilltop Campus.

Student Security

It's not just a job, it's an adventure. Ever wonder who those people were wandering around the campus at all hours of the night. Well wonder no more it was the student security. They patrolled the campus on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights with the regular security guards. They may have broken up a party that you were at but they also may have scared off anyone to tamper with your car.

The International Club has been in existence since October 2, 1984, when their constitution was approved.

We are a small group (hoping to expand) interested in what happens internationally in such countries as The Peoples Republic of China, the Soviet Union, Nicaragua, and Afghanistan. We learn about the different customs, beliefs, and political differences of these countries and also gain knowledge in choosing the best possible travel spots in all corners of the world. We sponsor and introduce various activities on campus mainly consisting of lectures and film festivals.

Young Republicans

After a very successful year last year IC Republicans are looking forward to another highly productive year. Although support is already strong, the ICR's are planning a membership drive to increase membership and support for the Republican Goals. 1986 officers are Pres. Jay Todd, V.P. Paul Taylor, Treas. Choir members stand at "attention" during a performance.

The IC Concert Choir, under the direction of Dr. Rudolf Zuiderveld, had an exciting and eventful year. The first semester, the choir sang at such occasions at the Opening Convocation, Chapel Services, the Parent's Day, and the traditional singing for Christmas dinner and vespers. The year was topped off by an extraordinary good Christmas program with solos provided by Johna Viner, Greg Floyd, and Ray Walton.

The second semester was a bit more eventful for the choir as they travelled throughout the state of Illinois, and made their way singing in Georgia and Florida on the spring tour. The members of the choir sang in the southern states, but they also enjoyed their fun in the sun and their visit to Tampa Gardens. The choir also worked hard to make the songs at Baccalaureate as good as they have been in previous years.

Phi Sigma Iota

Phi Sigma Iota is an International Foreign Language Honor Society. The Alpha Kappa Chapter of Phi Sigma Iota was established at IC in the fall of 1980. As of May '86 we have inducted 42 members. Induction is held at a spring brunch.

It is an honor society to recognize outstanding students, Juniors and Seniors, in foreign languages and literatures. An outstanding sophomore may be accepted. Students must have at least a B average in their entire college work as well as in all courses in language.

'85-'86 members: Marcette Meeks, Teresa Wallbaum, Kathy Stewart, Leslie Smith, Sabrina Fox, Dean Carole Ann Ryan, Jeff Redfern, Larry Sittler, Janelle Chapman, Linnay Wade.

Accounting Club

The college Accounting Club operated a Volunteer Income Tax Assistance for the 3rd year. VITA provided free tax assistance at community locations to persons who could not afford professional tax help.

The student volunteers helped people in the preparation and completion of their tax returns. All of the student volunteers took a proficiency exam to qualify to participate in the program. The examination tested the students' expertise in filling out 1040EZ and 1040 tax forms.

Professor Nausser Jamali of the business department has been the coordinator of the program.

'85-'86 members: Marcy Chipman, Michelle Groppe, Lisa Ginder, Annette Simmons, Cathy Doubler, Tylynda Hulslander, Sabrina Fox, Connie McIntire, Annette Smith, Cathy Underwood, Jeanne McNeely, Prof. Jamali, Todd Smith, Dan Rayhill, Dave Tippey.

New members of Delta Mu Delta: Sherry Goode, Lisa Ginder, Connie McIntire, Linda Musch, Joe Agner, Kevin McClelland, Kevin Bolling, John Schillerstrom, Dan Rayhill, Nick Lawless, Rod Irving, Chuck Dubois, John Cowell.

New members of the Accounting Club: Dean Nies, Brad Biddle, Dan Rayhill, Prof. Meier, Prof. Chien, Dave Tippey, Chris Langley, Connie McIntire, Lisa Ginder, Michelle Groppe, Prof. Jamali.

Delta Mu Delta

Delta Mu Delta is a National Honor Society in Business Administration formed in 1914. The Gamma Chi Chapter of Delta Mu Delta was established in 1981.

The purpose of the Chapter is to encourage higher scholarship and to recognize and reward scholastic achievement in business administration programs. Only those students who have completed half of their college courses with a 3.2 GPA or higher are inducted.

'85-'86 officers were Marcia Meyer - Pres., Lisa Summey, Vice-Pres., Jennie Ross - Sec/Treas. Faculty advisor - Prof. Meier.

'85-'86 Members: Cathy Underwood, Annette Smith, Marcia Meyer, Jennie Ross, Lisa Summey, Sabrina Fox, Jeanne McNeely, Debbie Perkins, Tom Veith, Marcy Chipman, Prof. Meier.

NEW FRIENDS & OLD FRIENDS

Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold,
New-made friendships, like new wine,
Age will mellow and refine.
Friendships that have stood the test —
Time and change — are surely best;
Brow may wrinkle, hair grow gray,
Friendship never knows decay.
For 'mid old friends, tried and true,
Once more we our youth renew.
But old friends, alas! may die,
New friends must their place supply.
Cherish friendship in your breast —
New is good, but old is best;
Make new friends, but keep the old;
Those are silver, these are gold.

Alpha Kappa Phi means service. Have you ever wondered who those people were handing out convo cards? AKΦ. What about ushers at the plays? AKΦ. Who were those girls pledging in the fall and singing about a frog, Horatio? AKΦ. Even tho AKΦ is not really recognized on the Hilltop Campus by the students, these ladies are responsible for many things. They hand out convo cards. They can be found in Barnes House serving dinners for trustees, dignitaries, and collecting dishes on Parents' Day. They can also be found in the Union serving trustees and Senior Dinner. AKΦ also collects for Unicef at Halloween, helps with MD Activities. For the third year they took plants to a neighboring nursing home on May Day. Next time you see one of these ladies on the quad say "thanks" for all their help.

On Wednesday, Jan. 29, 1986 Pi Pi Rho celebrated its 20th anniversary. On that date 20 years earlier, eight young men met with Dean Eldred, Dr. Vernon Caine, pres. of the college and benefactor, Prof. Charles Barlow to create a new society for those men on campus who did not fit into the rigid ties of the other men's societies. When in the process of creating this new society they came across documents of a society which had been in existence from 1929-1933. The society's name was Pi Pi Rho. This group of men in 1966 decided to refound this society and follow many of the same principles set down in 1929.

Today, 20 years later, Pi Pi

Rho is a firmly established and well-respected literary society. The eight refounders of Pi Pi Rho in 1966 had no idea how successful their efforts would be.

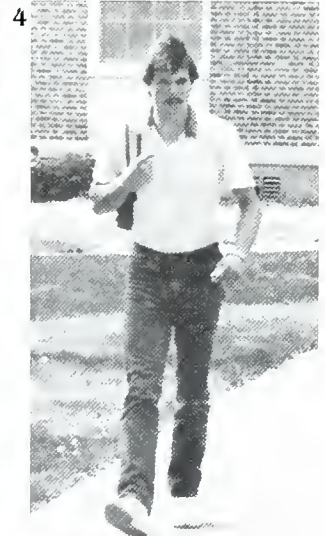

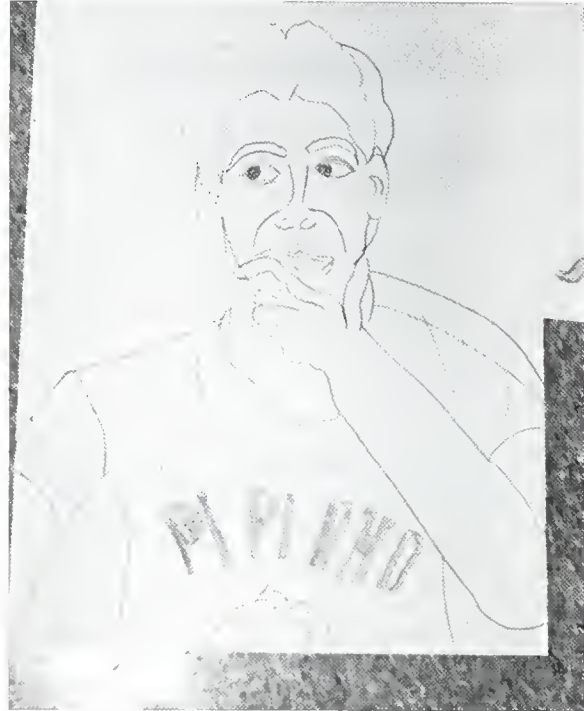

In a small ceremony to commemorate this event, twenty active members of Pi Pi Rho, four alumni including two refounders and Dean Eldred met for an evening of food, fellowship, and brotherhood. Short speeches were delivered by refounders Tom Rowland '67 and Patrick Kennedy '67, alumnus Steve Bordner '77 and Dean Eldred. Also in attendance was alumnus Bob Moore '80. These distinguished gentlemen described the group of refounders as a group of truly exceptional men, all of whom entered the teaching profession as either professors, teachers or coaches. This group of eight men set a goal of founding a society which would attract a wide range of students bonded together with friendship and brotherhood. Despite many difficulties their efforts have proven to be very successful.

All those in attendance are looking forward to the main celebration of the 20th anniversary which will be held in May at the society's annual lovefeast. Nearly 200 alumni, actives and guests are expected to attend this special event, which marks 20 years of fine literary achievement. Here's to another 20 years!

AN ATHLETE'S PRAYER

Author of my talents, only you have I praised to thee only shall my hands be raised.
For when I'm burdened, with the weight of my team to my rescue you come, it always will seem.

For outstanding is my play, on any given day when you intervene, and help lead the way.

Grateful to you, I'll always be for exploiting my talents, for the world to see.

For out there on the diamonds, before thousands of fans, we players perform, as best we can.

Perform we must, both day and night seeking victory, with all our might.

Seeking a place, with other sport greats in the hall of fame, where ability rates.

Where Ruth, Cobb, Robinson, as baseball's best For deep is my yearning for a place at the top and with you leading the way, competition couldn't stop

The glory of fame, which some day I'll receive when I too, pass on, and a proud record leave

So guide me, dear Author, for the competition is keen and I too may fall like others I've seen.

For many are the performers, and few reach the top but with you leading the way, I'll never stop.

Lady Blue Volleyball

Resembling a bullet . . .

... shot from a revolver, IC's 1985 volleyball squad made opponents stand up and take notice after finishing the campaign with a 12-10 overall record and a 2-3 Midwest Conference mark.

The key to the Lady Blues' success was the quick start which saw them sprint to an 8-2 record in their first 10 matches.

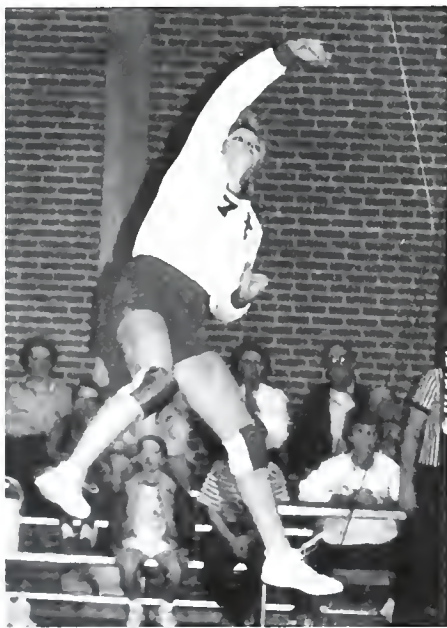

The Lady Blues will lose three seniors from the squad. Senior hitter Angela Grable closed out her volleyball career as the leading spiker on the Lady Blues. Angela averaged 32 spikes per game and was also among the leaders in service points and aces.

Senior setter Diane Read was named to the South Division's first team. She led the Lady Blues in sets with over 20 per game.

Senior hitter Barb Lindsey also wrapped up her IC career, providing pivotal play off the bench and as a spot starter.

Mary Imig, Devi McCurley and Kim Hardrader will bolster next year's team.

Blueboys

If it weren't for bad luck,

Illinois College's football team would have had no luck at all in 1985 as the Blueboys finished the season at 1-8 overall and 1-6 in the Midwest Conference for last place in the league's South Division.

The lone Illinois College victory came at Lake Forest on September 21 in the rain-drenched victory.

The 1985 season also ended an era in Illinois College athletic history as Joe Brooks finished 30 years as head football coach at the college with a career mark of 113-127-9. Brooks was not on the sidelines for the four final games of the season due to illness.

Finishing as the Blueboys' top ballcarrier for the third year in a row was senior halfback Phil Pohlman who rushed for 467 net yards in 145 carries for a 3.2 average.

Junior end Dan Rayhill finished as the Blueboys' top pass catcher snaring 15 passes for 197 yards for 13.1 per catch.

Freshman running back Dan Schone finished the season as one of the national leaders in punt return average in NCAA Division III with a 21-yard average on 11 returns.

Senior safety Randy Mitchell finished the year as the team's top tackler with 80. He had 35 solos.

Oh no. I'm being chased again.

Two IC Blueboys were selected as honorable mention choices on the 1985 Midwest All-Conference football team.

Senior halfback Phil Pohlman and junior defensive tackle Nick Lawless were named to the squad selected by a vote of league coaches.

Pohlman led the Blueboys in rushing with 467 yards and two touchdowns good for a 3.2 yard per carry average.

Lawless had 62 tackles at his defensive line position and led the Blueboys with eight tackles for losses totaling 32 yards.

"Both of these young men were deserving of the honor," said coach Joe Brooks.

Blueboy Soccer

IC Soccer is a GO

Winning just three games in a season is not considered a success in most cases, but in its first season of varsity competition and with one of the most competitive schedules around, IC soccer coach Steve Bonner was pleased with the Blueboys' initial soccer campaign that saw them finish 3-10-1 overall.

Freshmen fullback Kyle Schelle was named the Blueboys' Most Valuable Player. Used in about every offensive position, Schelle scored two goals and was credited with five assists, tying him for the team lead in that department was freshmen forward Tony Cox.

Most improved honors went to freshman fullback Jim Lockard.

Cited for a special award was freshman fullback/halfback Rob Karr. Karr was given the "Mr. Attitude, Hustle and Pride Award" picked by the coaches.

Selected as 1986 co-captains were Sean Emerick and Schelle. Junior midfielder Chris Langley finished his season as captain tying for the top spot in goals.

As a team, Blueboys scored 22 goals, and had 20 assists while firing 199 shots on goal. Opponents scored 39 goals.

The most effective goal-tenders were Tom Wiltshire and Scott Taul. Wiltshire had 64 saves and gave up 15 goals while Taul had 75 saves and surrendered 17 scores. Steve Bischel had 33 saves and gave up 7 goals.

Cross Country

A trying experience . . .

Coach Al Rosenberger, Todd DeWalt, Nora Nelson, John Boston, Jennifer Nimee.

... but for first year cross country coach Al Rosenberger the mission of beginning a cross country program at IC was anything but taxing.

"I would have liked to have seen more people come out but I truly feel the success of our runners tells people we are serious about competing in the sport," said Rosenberger.

With only 5 runners comprising the squad, 3 men and 2 women, IC was unable to compete for team honors at their meets but saw its runners finish respectable in all competitions.

Fresh. Jennifer Nimee finished with personal best of 13:45 and 16:48 in the 2-mile and 2½ mile. Nora Nelson had a best time of 21:33 in the 5,000 meters while finishing 14th in the conference championships.

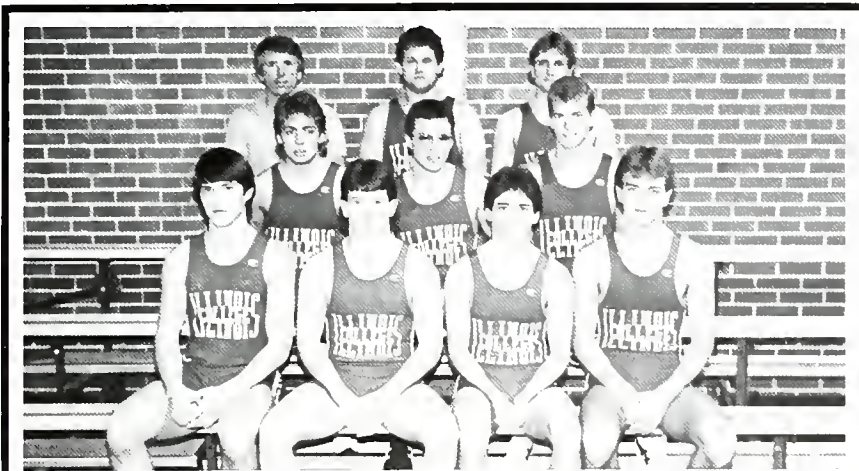

On the men's side John Boston and Todd DeWalt qualified for the NCAA Division III Regional.

Boston ran personal bests of 25:11 for the 4-mile and 30:18 for the 8,000 meters. He finished 26th at the Principia Invitational and 49th in the conference. Todd was 59th in the Midwest conference meet while Mike Early was 40th at Principia.

Expected to have the best chance of placing in the meet, are 150-pound Dirk Florence, 126-pound Tom Chesser, and 158-pound Steve Reed.

Florence had the best record of any Blueboy with 2-2, while Chesser stands at 0-2 and Reed at 0-1.

Blueboy Basketball

Personnel Shuffle at IC

Sports and the uncertainty that accompanies them seem to go hand-in-hand when a new season is just around the corner.

At no school is that truer than at IC as Bill Merris began his 28th campaign with the start of basketball practice.

Merris was the first to admit that there would be a personnel shuffle in store for the 1985-86 basketball Blueboys. He found willing participants to take part in solving the problem. Merris welcomed 31 varsity candidates to tryouts and workouts on the first day of practice.

IC looked to be set at the guard position where junior veterans and starters Phil Maton and Clarence Briggity returned. Briggity was the second-best scorer on the Blueboys last season. Maton was next in line with a 13.7 mark. The two were pivotal ingredients in enabling the Blueboys to score almost 76 points pergame.

Top returning candidates were sophomore lettermen Bryan Wright and Bruce Dial and Dave Jacobs.

"Those three would have to be considered top candidates but I'm not conceding anything," said Merris. "We had too many problems there last year to pick any favorites.

"To play in the frontline this year kids are going to have to pass and play defense," said Merris. "We had a lot of weakness last season. Defense, rebounding and passing will be the criteria to play forward or center this year."

IC basketball players Clarence Briggity and Jeff Mefford were named as honorable mention picks to the Midwest All-Conference basketball team.

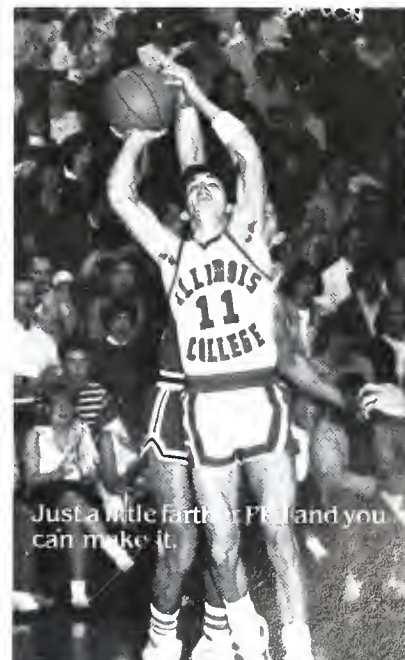

Clarence finished as the Blueboys top scorer this season with a 17-point average. He scored a personal high 30 in a 71-62 loss at Beliot and was eighth in the league in scoring.

He led IC in assists and steals with 70 and 47, respectively.

Jeff was the second-best scorer on the Blueboys with a 15.5 per game mark and pulled down 7.2 rebounds per game. He finished eighth in that category in the conference.

Lady Blues' Basketball

There was gold . . .

Overall, the Lady Blues had a 11-9 record due in part to a start that saw IC win 7 of its first 8 games.

It was another banner year for the senior forward duo of Carol Johnson and Angela Grable as the pair ranked among the top rebounders in Division III the entire season.

Johnson finished the year with a 13.4 season average, ranking her in the top 15 nationally. Grable was close behind, pulling down 12.3 rebounds per game.

Johnson also finished the season leading the Lady Blues in scoring and connected on 54% of her shots from the field. She also was the best free throw shooter on the team. Carol leaves IC as the leading scorer and rebounder. She has scored 1,147 pts and taken 926 rebounds.

Grable also ends her playing career among the best Lady Blues of all-time. She scored 976 pts and was credited with 668 rebounds in her 4-yr. court career.

Mary Imig and Cathy Langan also boosted the Lady Blues. Mary was the team leader in assists with 62.

Lady Blues' Track

Small but successful

The Lady Blues' Track team consisted of nine girls. While the bulk of the team consisted of freshmen there were 3 upper classmen in Nora Nelson, Peggy Stocker, and Beth Kershaw.

While small, the Lady Blues have had quite a successful year. At the St. Louis Invitational Jennifer placed 1st. in the 800 meter dash, Jackie finished 2nd. in the javelin, and 3rd. in the shot put. Brenda Branch 3rd. in 200 meter, Nora 3rd. in 800 meter dash and Kim qualified for conference with a 35 foot shot put toss.

If interest is a gauge for success, the IC women's track and field squad could be looking at its best season ever under coach Al Rosenberger.

Three letter winners from last year plus a strong supporting cast of 12 additional athletes give the Lady Blues a strong nucleus that was missing from last season's 8-member squad.

Leading the returnees are high jumper Amy Hildebrand, middle distance runner Nora Nelson, and hurdler and relay runner Peggy Stocker.

Nelson is considered one of the best middle distance runners on the squad, bettering her personal best in the 800 meters last year.

Stocker will add a dimension of experience in the hurdles and relays where she ran personal best times last season.

"We expect those 3 girls to lead the squad early," said Rosenberger. "I look for Amy to maintain her height and surpass it in the high jump while Nora and Peggy will be our strongest performers in their events."

Rosenberger is looking to freshmen Jennifer Nimee and Kim Harkrader in distance and weight events.

"I feel we'll be able to pile up some points in the field events and we look to introduce a couple of girls to the javelin this year," said Rosenberger.

"The sprints, relays and middle distance people will be really strong. I think we are going to surprise some people this year."

The team accomplished one important goal during this season, according to coach Al Rosenberger. The team attended large invitationals in Missouri, Illinois, Wisconsin and Iowa, and put the "blue and white of IC in front of folks," Rosenberger said. The team won a dual meet at home against Blackburn and scored high in invitationals with other Division II and III teams. Out of 19 girls reporting for track at the beginning of the season, nine finished. Kim Harkrader was MVP.

Blueboy Track

will have to balance in the winning equation when the IC track and field squad opened its season.

According to coach Tom Rowland, junior Tim Mitchell and senior Randy Mitchell were standouts during IC's men's track season. Both young men attended the National Track Meet. Tim snagged the Midwest Athletic Conference title in the 400 hurdles, and Randy qualified for nationals in the long jump. Tim won all-American honors last year in the 400 hurdles.

The IC men's track team concluded the season with four wins and two losses in dual meets and ended up seven out of 12 teams in the Midwest Athletic Conference.

Lady Blues' Tennis

A fun year

Coach Smith, Kelly Gross, Eileen Hurley, Anita Buckley, Amy Browning, Denise Dean, Meg Trenchard, Mindy Schmidt, Sharma Higgins.

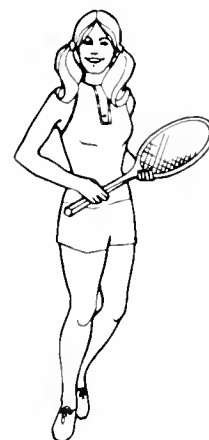

The IC Lady Blue's tennis team ended their season with a feeling of gratification. Although they were unable to obtain a single team win, there were many individual victories. Maintaining good spirits while keeping their competitors on their toes was victorious in itself. There were several close matches played and each player deserved a pat on the back for her performance.

This year's conference meet put the Lady Blues on a very long road to St. Lawrence University in Wisconsin. Kelly, Sharma, Eileen, Denise and Mindy went and faced colleges from Iowa, Wisconsin, and Illinois. The matches started on Friday and ran through Sunday.

All of the ladies had a great time playing this year and did make some personal gains in the way of self-improvement as well as gaining new friends.

A special thanks to our coach, Bob Smith, for sharing his know-how and his support. As for the 1985 Lady Blues tennis team: Hats off to you for a fabulous season!

A "Building" Year

1. Oz goes for the lob.
2. Dennis is chased back to the line.
3. Ron heads for the net.
4. Jeff goes into the back court.
5. Dennis waits for the serve.

Five returning lettermen and four first time players form the nucleus of the IC men's tennis team.

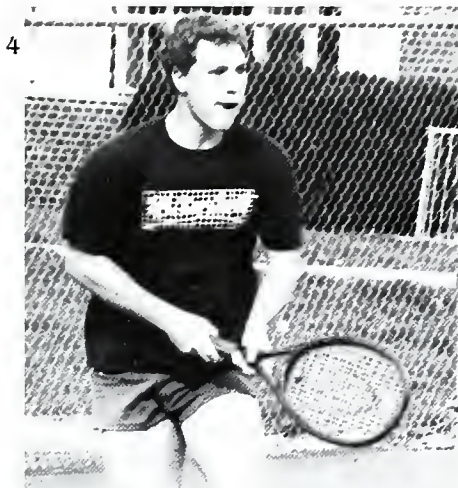

Coach Bill Merris' squad is coming off a 3-3 dual meet record from last season. Leading the way for the Blueboys was last season's number-two singles player, Jeff Ramer, and Dennis Carie.

Ramer is favored for the #1 singles slot while Carie is a strong candidate for #2 singles. Filling out the top four players will be Tim Ozenkoski and Don Rayhill.

Merris is looking for Ramer and Carie to form his #2 doubles team while Ozenkoski and Rayhill will be #2 doubles tandem.

Also figuring strong in the singles picture are Ron Bubb and Daniel Flynn and Kirk Galasso.

Bubb lettered last season while Flynn and Galasso are playing their first college tennis.

Blueboy Baseball

A healthy mix . . .

... of veterans and youth was the hallmark of IC's '86 baseball squad. The strength of this year's contingent could be in the catching corps where senior Vic Castelli and Ted Love return to split duties at backstop.

"Catching will be our strong suit this year," said Joe Brooks.

Brooks will carry 10 hurlers on this year's team, including six freshmen. Tops among the mound returnees are Joe Killday, Darin Hetelle, and Rod Irvin.

Tops among the freshmen is Vaughn Kumlander while soph. Lonnie West could see action out of the bullpen as the staff's only lefthanded hurler.

As additional strongpoint for the Blueboys will be in the infield where IC returns lettermen at every position with the exception of first base.

Some questions remain in the outfield where senior Jeff Cokel and soph. Jim Trimmingham return to anchor the outer defense.

Also expected to challenge for playing time in the outfield are fresh. Dale Allen, Dee Kinman, and Tony Robertson.

As a fitting tribute to retiring coach Joe Brooks, the Blueboys ended with a winning season record of 14-10. The team went 10-5 in conference play, which was enough to earn it second place in the Southern Division.

Several players stood out from the crowd. Vic Castelli batted .395 to secure the team title. He also led the team in home runs with 10. Denny Flesner pitched his way to a 6-1 record in conference play and was selected all-conference along with Castelli.

Lonnie and Ronnie West swung their bats much to the benefit of the Blueboys. Lonnie batted .384 and led the team with 25 RBI's. Ronnie batted a solid .312. Although Scott Taul didn't have enough at bats to qualify for the batting title, he sparked with a .433 average.

Lady Blues' Softball

Ladies play 'hard'

1. Ronelle begins her wind-up.
2. Carol drags out a bunt.

Lori Molloy, Angela Grable, Carol Johnson, Valerie Leitschutt, Sarah Ridings, Ronelle Cagle, Sharma Higgins, Diane Read, Coach Lori Holt.

Sarah takes her stance at the plate.

The Lady Blues have had a dismal season if you just look at the wins (3) and the losses (12) but in terms of spirit and determination they are winners. They have played hard this year against, what their Coach terms 'top-flight' competition.

Their calendar this year included 14 matchups, all double-headers. Of these, 8 were home contests. The first 3 contests of the season were at home and after this the girls hit the road for 5 dates then returned to Jacksonville.

Women's Athletic Coach Lori Holt was pleased with the improvement made by her softball team over last year. The girls finished 8-15 in comparison to 4-23 last year. Freshmen Ronelle Cagle, pitcher-catcher, batted .333, which earned her all-conference and rookie-of-the-year honors.

Holt noted that her softball team was made up mostly freshman and seniors this year, so she will have several veterans on next year's roster.

2. Lisa gets ready at first.
3. Ronelle's winning form.

Blueboy Golf

Conference Champs

Like the changing of winter to spring, Illinois College's golf squad has budding hopes of laying claim to the Midwest Conference golf title.

Tabbed as one of the favorites for league honors by conference coaches, coach Gary Church and his charges are confident of making 1986 a season to remember.

With 5 returning lettermen who finished with a 3-0 record last season in dual meets and second in the South Division of the Midwest Conference and in the conference playoffs, Church has reason to express optimism.

Tops among the Blueboy returnees are senior Kevin McClelland and Jim Heyer and junior Reid McClintock. Last year's MVP, McClelland was runnerup for medalist honors in the conference tournament and is considered IC's number one golfer.

McClintock and Heyer will battle it out for the number two and number three slots.

Tentatively scheduled for the other three positions in the starting six will be Thom Woodward, Bryan Wright, and Dave Pierson. "There's always a possibility that someone else will sneak in as a sleeper, but I expect those guys to come to the front early," said Church.

The Blueboys captured the Midwest Athletic Conference title on May 10.

Senior Kevin McClelland turned in a stellar performance all season culminating in his finish as medalist in the Conference finals.

Kevin McClelland was named first alternate for the NCAA Division III National Tournament in Pennsylvania. Kevin is the 121st player listed out of 120 named to the field. He will play if any players are unable to compete.

Joe Brooks

Good Luck Joe

Joe Brooks, IC's athletic director, football coach and baseball coach for the past 37 years, announced his retirement effective at the end of the 1985-86 academic year.

A '46 graduate of the U of I, Brooks came to IC after working as an assistant coach at JHS for a year. He returned to the U of I in '47 to work on his master's degree and that same year accepted an assistant football coaching position at IC under Al Miller.

He was named head football coach at IC in '56, succeeding Miller.

Brooks' stay at the College has been the longest of any football coach at the school which began playing football in 1891. His 30 years as head football coach rank him near the top of football coaches in terms of service to one institution.

He has been the athletic director since '56 and head baseball coach since '47. He also has coached basketball and is credited with starting the wrestling and swimming programs at IC. Swimming has since been discontinued at the College.

"It was a tough decision," said Brooks. "I just told the (football) team that everything has to come to an end. I have always enjoyed the athletes here and my relationship with them."

"I really enjoyed the athletes here and my relationship with them."

"I really don't know yet what I will do," he said. "I love to travel, and there are a lot of streams I haven't fished yet and a lot of trails I haven't walked. I also want to watch my grandchildren grow up."

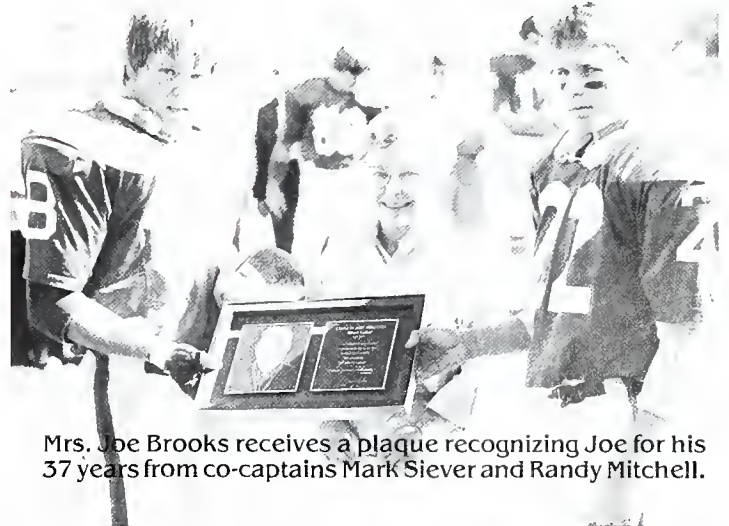

Brooks admits there have been peaks and valleys through the years but the good times have far outweighed the bad. He sees a bright future for IC athletics.

Bill Merris said, "It will be a difficult period for IC athletics without Joe Brooks. The good thing about Joe is that he always had a good sense of humor and the players that played for him had a deep personal affection for him. There is nobody I know of who is more popular with IC alumni than Joe Brooks."

IC President Munding also had high praise for Brooks.

"Joe Brooks is a fine gentleman, a fine coach, a fine developer of young people. He is an astute student, both of football and of baseball. He coached to help young people, not to help the College or himself. He enjoys the respect and affection of our alumni and of his colleagues in the profession. His shoes will be hard to fill."

Joe's teams were always respected and he got much from their talent. He leaves a legacy of good will, pride and respect," Dr. Munding said.

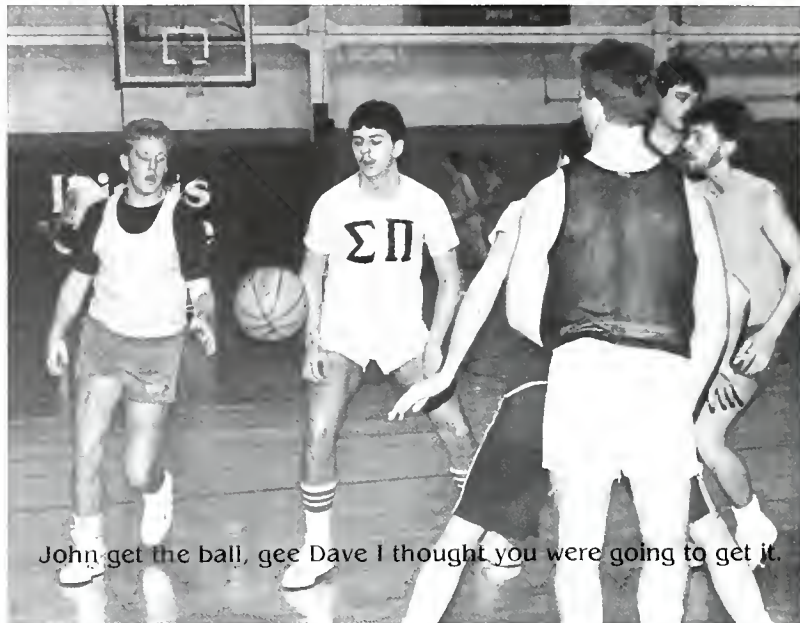

Mrs. Joe Brooks receives a plaque recognizing Joe for his 37 years from co-captains Mark Siever and Randy Mitchell.

THE STUDENT

Under the rusting elms his separate path,
Crossing and recrossing the separate paths
Of others like himself, whose aimless feet
Weave some invisible pattern on the grass,
Takes him to the classroom, to his seat,
Where he walks on words towards a drowning man
He dimly imagines, or pictures in vague dreams,

A shifty man whose face he thinks familiar
As his own, yet cannot fix exactly,
Who calls to him when he walks out again
Onto the solid earth to thread his way
Under the rusting elm leaves, which float down
Like nets through water seeking the vagrant school.

After the rush of moving in (and deciding there's no way a dorm room will ever resemble a picture from Better Homes), orientation (you take notes on how to take notes), meeting new people (so what if you don't remember them the next day in the light?), and registration (who's Professor Staff?), classes finally begin.

Life's rough but eventually though, everyone finds his niche and settles down. You really are a college student. You've made it.

SOPHOMORES

So I'm back at school again and hey! this time we're the orientation leaders, not the young and innocent Freshman. We're much wiser in the ways of college now, but still, how's that go, "sophomores with their conscience clear"?

It's going to be an interesting year. Among all the new faces, I do still find familiar ones — new hair cuts, new glasses, or maybe no glasses, but still recognizable and previous IC inhabitants.

All those requirements, like speech and math, that I was going to put off until later, well that time is now. Besides, as if that wasn't enough, I have to declare a major.

Oh well, at least I'm back at school!

Juniors are those people who are almost there, but haven't quite made it. You've come a long way, but there's still some to go.

The campus is not the only thing that's changed. Without these years, your life would have been different. With them, you've molded a unique future for yourself. And the future will be here only too soon, so shake the sophomore slump and save senioritis for the seniors.

SCHOLARS

Logic does well at school;
And reason answers every question right;
Poll-parrot memory unwinds her spool;
And copy-cat keeps teacher well in sight;

The heart's a traunt; nothing does by rule;
Safe in its wisdom, is taken for a fool;
Nods through the morning on the dunces stool;
And wakes to dream all night.

Thomas Hardy

YEAR'S END

Clouds prophesy; the sky pretends
A flood. My mind's a thousand webs
Punctured by poetry and trends,
Current stuff. Thank God winter ebbs
And dies. The semester is gone,
Dead as Dante and Calderon.

Irony: a literary spring.
Students rebel; the long year ends.
Doting professors fly to Spain.
The pool is closed. A gardner bends
To pick a pad of paper from
A daisy basket, with a plomb.

My students did not see the truth;
They saw one another and chewed gum.
My fault. And I admit that both
Pride and arrogance struck me dumb,
And hot pants and the bra-less look.
Dactylic hexameter had not luck:

I gave them Hoerm, heroic deeds.
They preferred travel and communes.
I read them Lucretius, his seeds
Of things. I tried to teach them runes,
Shadow and substance and symmetry
From Gilgamesh to Ted Roethke.

I figure up my retirement
And think of moving out of state.
Owls hoot, my head is hard as flint.
Sweating and several days too late,
I check an error, then remind
Myself it's glasses or go blind.

All agree springs a time for love.
My students know, going with the sun.
I too feel it is time to move,
But feel is all I can. They run
Through more than books to make them wise:
A stretch of sand, laughter, night skies.
